

*Solynta

true potato seeds

SOLHY017

Hybrid potato that produces a good yield in conventional and organic cultivation. Late maturing with oval shape and yellow smooth skin and a medium-yellow flesh color.

Market

Well-suited potato for the fresh market. Suited to grow in low-input growing environment. Proven high level of resistance against Late Blight. Tasty, firm fine table potato with smooth and even skin. Delicious when boiled and baked, perfect in salads.

Plant characteristics

Growth habit	semi-upright
Flower color	purple
Maturity	late

Tuber characteristics

Shape	short-oval
Size	very small
Size distribution	narrow
Depth of eyes	shallow
Skin color	yellow
Flesh color	yellow
Dormancy	short

Quality

Cooking type	A very firm
Under water weight	385
DM-content	21,2%

Sensitivity

metribuzin	sensitive
------------	-----------

Resistances

PVY	2 (sensitive)
PVYntn tolerance	-
Late blight-foliage	7 (tolerant)
Late blight-tuber	-
Common scab	-
Powdery scab	-
Fusarium	-
Wart disease	-
Nematode Ro	-
Nematode Pa	-

The information on this product fact sheet corresponds with the latest insights. No rights can be derived from, and no warranty is provided with respect to any information, in whatever form, on this product fact sheet. Solynta shall under no circumstances accept liability for damages that results from use of the information on the product fact sheet. Product fact sheets are regularly updated. For more information contact Solynta, sales@solynta.com. October 3, 2023